

External Counsel to Manitoba Hydro

published 12/01/2011

External Counsel supporting Manitoba Hydro in the negotiation of settlement agreements with numerous First Nations and more recently as external counsel supporting Manitoba Hydro in the environmental review and licensing processes as well as the negotiation and finalization of project development agreements, limited partnerships and adverse effect (impact) agreements with First Nations for the development of two new hydro-electric generating facilities: the 695-megawatt Keeyask project, currently under construction, valued more than $5.5 billion and the 200-megawatt Wuskwatim project, which is now in service, valued more than $1 billion.

---

DISCLAIMER: This article is presented for informational purposes only. The content does not constitute legal advice or solicitation and does not create a solicitor client relationship. The views expressed are solely the authors' and should not be attributed to any other party, including Thompson Dorfman Sweatman LLP (TDS), its affiliate companies or its clients. The authors make no guarantees regarding the accuracy or adequacy of the information contained herein or linked to via this article. The authors are not able to provide free legal advice. If you are seeking advice on specific matters, please contact Keith LaBossiere, CEO & Managing Partner at kdl@tdslaw.com, or 204.934.2587. Please be aware that any unsolicited information sent to the author(s) cannot be considered to be solicitor-client privileged.

While care is taken to ensure the accuracy for the purposes stated, before relying upon these articles, you should seek and be guided by legal advice based on your specific circumstances. We would be pleased to provide you with our assistance on any of the issues raised in these articles.