

Sale of Vector Construction Group

published 11/21/2025

Transaction Overview

Winnipeg-based Vector Construction Group of Companies has been acquired by Structural Group, Inc. (“SGI”), a leading North American provider of concrete repair and infrastructure services headquartered in Columbia, Maryland. This strategic acquisition strengthens SGI’s presence across Canada and the United States.

About Vector Construction

Nearly 275 employees and 60 years of experience in concrete repair, restoration, and cathodic protection, Vector Construction is well established across both Canada and the United States. The company’s technical expertise and long-standing industry reputation will support SGI’s continued growth and service expansion throughout North America.

Client Commentary

Former CEO Bob Spriggs shared his perspective on the transition:

“We are pleased to join forces with SGI, the largest concrete repair contractor in North America. Our common mission is focused on preserving, repairing and extending the service life of the built environment. Together we will be able to achieve more, helping clients solve complex concrete infrastructure challenges.”

TDS Role in the Transaction

Thompson Dorfman Sweatman LLP (“TDS”) acted for Vector Construction and its shareholders throughout the entire sale process. The legal team comprised Leilani Kagan, Lewis Allen, Dan Robillard, Leah Suderman, Christina Vieira Olfert and Noah Soenen.

They advised on a broad range of areas, including:

- Corporate and commercial law (mergers and acquisitions ("M&A"))
- Intellectual property
- Real estate
- Labour and employment
- Financial services
- Tax

Client Testimonial

Reflecting on his experience working with TDS, Spriggs added:

"The TDS team was excellent throughout the entire pre-sale and sale process. This transaction was complicated, and their collective experience and expertise, timeliness, and collaborative efforts with all parties brought this deal to a successful close. They did a great job for us!"
