

The Impact of Prioritizing Meaningful Connections

published 06/10/2024

AGI's Senior Vice President, Ryan Kipp, initially crossed paths with TDS Partner, Michael Choiselat, during a pivotal period of growth for the agriculture company. Mike left a lasting impression by proactively assisting both the bank and AGI in navigating multiple successful acquisitions on a global scale.

Today, TDS lawyers extend their support beyond AGI's legal department, engaging with various departments such as human resources, engineering, and sales teams. Their role involves providing counsel and guidance on a spectrum of legal matters. What sets TDS apart, as observed by AGI, is their adeptness in interpersonal interactions and their understanding of the significance of client relationships.
