

The Impact of Protecting Innovative Ideas

published 06/20/2024

Ecopoxy's Chief Executive Officer, Jack Maendel, began collaborating with TDS Partner, Silvia de Sousa, at a pivotal moment in the company's history. Following the launch of their innovative soybean oil-based epoxy, Ecopoxy experienced a surge in global demand. Silvia played a crucial role in helping Jack appreciate the importance of intellectual property and securing ownership of their groundbreaking products.

Today, TDS lawyers extend their support beyond Ecopoxy's legal department, engaging with various departments such as human resources, technology, and privacy protection.

Their role encompasses providing counsel and guidance on a broad range of legal matters. What sets TDS apart, as observed by Ecopoxy, is their ability to deliver a comprehensive range of legal expertise across many departments, and their personal approach to client relationships.
