Course Name: Prompt Payment in Practice:
Documentation, Disputes & Adjudication
Readiness

Date: Friday, November 20, 2026

Time: 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. CST (3 hours)

Description

TDS lawyer Bailey Harris will be presenting the Winnipeg Construction Association course on Prompt Payment in Practice, covering the practical implications of Manitoba's prompt payment and adjudication framework.

This seminar provides an in-depth look at the legislation, including key requirements, timelines and considerations for stakeholders across the construction industry. Participants will learn how the framework affects payment processes, project administration and dispute resolution.

The session will also cover practical steps for updating contracts, strengthening project documentation, adjusting payment and project management processes, and preparing for potential adjudication.

This session is designed for owners, consultants, general contractors and subcontractors involved in construction projects and payment processes.

More Information and Registration

More information, cost and registration can be found on the Winnipeg Construction Association website.
