We live here, we work here

Christianson TDS is delighted to welcome Kristin Desrochers to our Portage office.

Kristin practices primarily family law, including custody and support matters, property division, guardianship applications, adoptions, and child protection matters. With a focus on working collaboratively towards resolving matters, she also appears regularly in court. Although Kristin practices primarily family law, she is also able to serve clients in other areas of the law, including real estate, wills, and powers of attorney.
