

Congratulations TDS Lawyer Scott Hoeppner as new board chair of the Morden and District Chamber of Commerce

published 06/26/2020

The Morden and District Chamber of Commerce (MDCC) has a new board chair, with Scott Hoeppner taking up the role from the previous chair Michelle Sawatzky.

For the first ten years of his career, Scott's practice has focused primarily on the area of labour and employment law, providing advice on employment and labour relations matters, terminations, wrongful dismissals, grievance arbitrations and proceedings before labour boards and human rights tribunals.

Scott is one of the lawyers in our Morden and Winkler office. Scott's practice is focused primarily on the area of labour and employment law and business law.

To learn more about Scott's new role read the article from Pembina Valley Online, and click here.

DISCLAIMER: This article is presented for informational purposes only. The content does not constitute legal advice or solicitation and does not create a solicitor client relationship. The views expressed are solely the authors' and should not be attributed to any other party, including Thompson Dorfman Sweatman LLP (TDS), its affiliate companies or its clients. The authors make no guarantees regarding the accuracy or adequacy of the information contained herein or linked to via this article. The authors are not able to provide free legal advice. If you are seeking advice on specific matters, please contact Keith LaBossiere, CEO & Managing Partner at kdl@tdslaw.com, or 204.934.2587. Please be aware that any unsolicited information sent to the author(s) cannot be considered to be solicitor-client privileged.

While care is taken to ensure the accuracy for the purposes stated, before relying upon these articles, you should seek and be guided by legal advice based on your specific circumstances. We would be pleased to provide you with our assistance on any of the issues raised in these articles.