

Hannah Taylor and Chim Undi Honored with Winnipeg 150 Medals for Outstanding Community Contributions

published 11/29/2024

In celebration of Winnipeg's 150th anniversary, 150 community-minded individuals were recognized for their significant contributions to their neighbourhoods or the city as a whole. TDS lawyers, Hannah Taylor and Chim Undi, were two of those individuals.

Each recipient received:

- A specially designed Winnipeg 150 Medal in a presentation box
- A certificate signed by the Mayor
- A tree planted in their honour in a Winnipeg park

The Winnipeg 150 medals were created for Winnipeg City Council to present to residents of Winnipeg who have made a significant contribution to their neighbourhood or the city at large.

Congratulations to Chim and Hannah!
