

John Stefanuik appointed to national Board of Directors of the Canadian Bar Association published 05/20/2020

John Stefaniuk has been appointed to the national Board of Directors of the Canadian Bar Association effective September 1, 2020.

The CBA represents some 36,000 lawyers, judges, notaries, law teachers and law students from across Canada as the voice of Canada's legal profession, promoting fair justice systems, facilitating effective law reform, upholding equality in the legal profession and working to eliminate discrimination. The CBA is dedicated to supporting the rule of law and improving the administration of justice in Canada.

The CBA is also the premiere provider of quality legal training and information.

DISCLAIMER: This article is presented for informational purposes only. The content does not constitute legal advice or solicitation and does not create a solicitor client relationship. The views expressed are solely the authors' and should not be attributed to any other party, including Thompson Dorfman Sweatman LLP (TDS), its affiliate companies or its clients. The authors make no guarantees regarding the accuracy or adequacy of the information contained herein or linked to via this article. The authors are not able to provide free legal advice. If you are seeking advice on specific matters, please contact Keith LaBossiere, CEO & Managing Partner at kdl@tdslaw.com, or 204.934.2587. Please be aware that any unsolicited information sent to the author(s) cannot be considered to be solicitor-client privileged.

While care is taken to ensure the accuracy for the purposes stated, before relying upon these articles, you should seek and be guided by legal advice based on your specific circumstances. We would be pleased to provide you with our assistance on any of the issues raised in these articles.