

Sacha R. Paul, Sheryl Rosenberg and John D. Stefaniuk Recognized as Leading Lawyers in the Lexpert Special Edition: Mining 2022

published 10/05/2022

Congratulations to Thompson Dorfman Sweatman LLP lawyers Sacha R. Paul, Sheryl Rosenberg and John D. Stefaniuk for their recent recognition as Lexpert-ranked mining lawyers.

Sacha R. Paul's practice is focused primarily in Aboriginal law and public/administrative law. He has experience working for resource developers, such as mining and forestry companies, in engaging with First Nations and Metis communities, particularly when it comes to future resource developments or the impacts of past developments.

Sheryl Rosenberg practises primarily in the area of environmental law, providing clients with advice concerning environmental approvals and licensing, mining and mine rehabilitation, natural resource development, regulatory compliance, contaminated sites and litigation of environmental matters.

John D. Stefaniuk engages in a broad practice with emphasis on environmental law, real estate and development law, natural resources and energy, commercial law and municipal law matters. He has particular experience in relation to contaminated sites, mining and mine rehabilitation, wind power development, natural resource development, environmental approvals and licensing, commercial real estate, leasing, financing and development, municipal approvals, taxation and assessment and business acquisitions.

The Lexpert Special Edition: Mining 2022 focuses on the future of mining including the effects of the economy and geopolitics on the industry, social and governance, and the new world of stakeholder engagement.
