

Leandro Damian Zylberman was awarded the 2009 A. Montague Israels, Q.C. Prize at the Call to the Bar Ceremony on June 18, 2009

published 07/17/2009

Mr. Israels, a distinguished lawyer and man of far-reaching interests, was the first Director of the Law Society's Bar admission Course until his death in 1973. To honour his memory, a fund was established by members of the Manitoba Bar and by his friends. Since 1979, the Law Society of Manitoba annually awards a prize named after Mr. Israels to a Bar Admission Course student who possesses the professional and personal attributes of scholarship, character, skill and breadth of interest that Mr. Israels valued and exemplified in his life.

Mr. Zylberman articulated with TDS where he now practices as an associate.
