Supporting Inclusive Resource Development in Africa: John Stefaniuk, Thompson Dorfman Sweatman Q&A

published 04/17/2020

As featured in the Canadian Lawyer Magazine,

"John Stefaniuk, a partner in Thompson Dorfman Sweatman LLP in Winnipeg, has spent his career in environmental law and sustainable development, including in the mining sector. Over the past two years Stefaniuk has also spent time in Africa, volunteering with the Canadian Bar Association's joint Supporting Inclusive Resource Development in East Africa (SIRD) project with Global Affairs Canada. Implemented by the CBA International Initiatives in partnership with East African law societies, SIRD supports good governance of the natural resource sector in East Africa."

Want to read more? Read the full article here.

DISCLAIMER: This article is presented for informational purposes only. The content does not constitute legal advice or solicitation and does not create a solicitor client relationship. The views expressed are solely the authors' and should not be attributed to any other party, including Thompson Dorfman Sweatman LLP (TDS), its affiliate companies or its clients. The authors make no guarantees regarding the accuracy or adequacy of the information contained herein or linked to via this article. The authors are not able to provide free legal advice. If you are seeking advice on specific matters, please contact Keith LaBossiere, CEO & Managing Partner at kdl@tdslaw.com, or 204.934.2587. Please be aware that any unsolicited information sent to the author(s) cannot be considered to be solicitor-client privileged.

While care is taken to ensure the accuracy for the purposes stated, before relying upon these articles, you should seek and be guided by legal advice based on your specific circumstances. We would be pleased to provide you with our assistance on any of the issues raised in these articles.

 | ©2024 TDS Law. All rights reserved.