TDS awarded Regional Law Firm of the Year (Prairies) for Fourth Year in a Row

published 05/12/2023

Thompson Dorfman Sweatman LLP (TDS) is honoured to be recognized as the Regional Law Firm of the Year (Prairies) at the 2023 Canadian Law Awards for the fourth year in a row.

The Canadian Law Awards held their annual gala in Toronto at the Liberty Grand on May 11, 2023, to announce this year's winners in over 28 categories for outstanding firms, teams, individuals, deals or cases. Nominations were received from firms and legal departments across Canada, where they were then reviewed based on the quantity, quality, importance, and innovativeness of their legal work. An extensive independent judging panel then selected winners based on strict scoring criteria.

"We are immensely grateful to have again been recognized as a leader in the region by our clients and peers. TDS reflects the strength and ingenuity of everyone we work with on the Prairies, across Canada and around the world. Our team of lawyers, paralegals, assistants, staff, and students continue to provide excellent service to all of our clients," said Keith LaBossiere, K.C., CEO and Managing Partner, Thompson Dorfman Sweatman LLP.

In addition to being recognized at the Canadian Law Awards, TDS has also recently been recognized as one of Canada’s Best Law Firms of 2023 by the Globe and Mail and Top Referring Firm for 2022 by Lex Mundi. Our lawyers are also regularly listed in Chambers Global and the Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory.

TDS congratulates all the finalists and winners of the Canadian Law Awards.
