TDS congratulates Sacha Paul and Mason Broadfoot on their elected roles as benchers for The Law Society of Manitoba.

The Law Society of Manitoba is the governing body for the legal profession in Manitoba and its purpose is to uphold and protect the public interest in the delivery of legal services with competence, integrity and independence.

Sacha Paul was first appointed bencher in 2016 for the Winnipeg Electoral District and has served on various committees since. Sacha will continue to serve his clients, practising in the areas of Indigenous law, administrative law, insurance law, and personal injury.

Mason Broadfoot is a newly appointed bencher for the Law Society of Manitoba, elected to represent the Dauphin Central Electoral District. Mason will continue to serve his clients in Portage la Prairie, MacGregor and the surrounding communities where he maintains a broad practice. Mason is able to serve clients in many different aspects of the law, including corporate and commercial, municipal law, real estate transactions, wills, estates and succession planning.
