

TDS Honours Black History Month

published 02/14/2023

Black History Month takes place every February in Canada and is a month-long celebration that recognizes and honours the contributions, achievements and experiences of Black Canadians.

The purpose of Black History Month is to educate Canadians about the rich and diverse history of Black people in Canada, to increase awareness and understanding of Black culture and to celebrate the accomplishments of Black Canadians in all aspects of Canadian society. It is a time to reflect on the past, celebrate the present, and create a better future for Black Canadians.

There are many organizations and educational resources across the country devoted to the promotion and awareness of Black Canadian history, including:

- Government of Canada website
- Black History Manitoba
- CBC News - How to celebrate Black History Month 2023 in Manitoba

TDS encourages all of our lawyers, paralegals, legal assistants and staff to take time this month to reflect, learn and celebrate with friends and family.

DISCLAIMER: This article is presented for informational purposes only. The content does not constitute legal advice or solicitation and does not create a solicitor client relationship. The views expressed are solely the authors' and should not be attributed to any other party, including Thompson Dorfman Sweatman LLP (TDS), its affiliate companies or its clients. The authors make no guarantees regarding the accuracy or adequacy of the information contained herein or linked to via this article. The authors are not able to provide free legal advice. If you are seeking advice on specific matters, please contact Keith LaBossiere, CEO & Managing Partner at kdl@tdslaw.com, or 204.934.2587. Please be aware that any unsolicited information sent to the author(s) cannot be considered to be solicitor-client privileged.

While care is taken to ensure the accuracy for the purposes stated, before relying upon these articles, you should seek and be guided by legal advice based on your specific circumstances. We would be pleased to provide you with our assistance on any of the issues raised in these articles.