

TDS honours Black History Month

The month of February is designated as Black History Month, where we celebrate and honour the contributions of Black Canadians and their communities.

There are many organizations and educational resources across the country devoted to the promotion and awareness of Black Canadian history. Check out Black history organizations and educational resources from the Government of Canada website.

This year, Thompson Dorfman Sweatman LLP (TDS) has pledged a donation to BLSA Cares at the Black Law Students Association of Canada. Click here to learn more about BLSA.
