

TDS is pleased to welcome Alan MacInnes back as counsel to the firm

published 11/02/2018

TDS is pleased to welcome Alan MacInnes back as counsel to the firm. Alan practiced with TDS for 29 years prior his 1992 appointment as Justice of the Manitoba court of Queen's Bench. He was appointed to the Manitoba Court of Appeal in 2007 where he served with distinction until his retirement earlier this year. Alan will be focusing on the mentoring of our students and associates and will also be available to undertake work as an arbitrator and mediator.

DISCLAIMER: This article is presented for informational purposes only. The content does not constitute legal advice or solicitation and does not create a solicitor client relationship. The views expressed are solely the authors' and should not be attributed to any other party, including Thompson Dorfman Sweatman LLP (TDS), its affiliate companies or its clients. The authors make no guarantees regarding the accuracy or adequacy of the information contained herein or linked to via this article. The authors are not able to provide free legal advice. If you are seeking advice on specific matters, please contact Keith LaBossiere, CEO & Managing Partner at kdl@tdslaw.com, or 204.934.2587. Please be aware that any unsolicited information sent to the author(s) cannot be considered to be solicitor-client privileged.

While care is taken to ensure the accuracy for the purposes stated, before relying upon these articles, you should seek and be guided by legal advice based on your specific circumstances. We would be pleased to provide you with our assistance on any of the issues raised in these articles.