

TDS Partner Recognized in Lexpert Special Edition: Mining 2025

published 09/04/2025

Congratulations to TDS partner John D. Stefaniuk, K.C., on his selection for the upcoming Lexpert Special Edition: Mining 2025. This special edition, published online at Lexpert.ca, recognizes leading Canadian lawyers in the mining industry.

John's work is essential to clients in the mining and energy sectors, where he advises on critical matters related to contaminated sites, mining and mine rehabilitation. He regularly provides strategic counsel on environmental approvals and natural resource projects, representing clients before provincial and federal courts, the Manitoba Clean Environment Commission and the Municipal Board.

This recognition from Lexpert reinforces John's standing as a distinguished legal professional and our firm's commitment to providing expert advice from top legal talent you can trust. His leadership in environmental law and property development has earned him repeated recognition from respected publications, including The Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory, Who's Who Legal and The Best Lawyers in Canada. In addition to his legal practice, he serves as a roster member of the Canadian Centre for Environmental Arbitration and Mediation.

Lexpert Special Edition: Mining 2025 will feature detailed biographies of leading practitioners and explore significant industry developments, including regulatory changes and the growing importance of critical minerals.
