TDS Partner Recognized in Lexpert Special Edition: Mining 2026

published 09/02/2026

Congratulations to TDS partner John D. Stefaniuk, K.C., on his selection for the upcoming Lexpert Special Edition: Mining 2026. This special edition, published online at Lexpert.ca, recognizes leading Canadian lawyers in the mining industry and explores significant industry developments, including regulatory changes and the growing importance of critical minerals.

Advising the Mining Industry

John's work is essential to clients in the mining and energy sectors, where he advises on critical matters related to contaminated sites, mining and mine rehabilitation. He regularly provides strategic counsel on environmental approvals and natural resource projects, representing clients before provincial and federal courts, the Manitoba Clean Environment Commission and the Municipal Board.

This continued recognition reflects John's extensive experience advising clients on environmental, mining and natural resource matters. His leadership in environmental law and property development has earned him repeated recognition from respected publications, including The Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory, Who's Who Legal and The Best Lawyers in Canada. In addition to his legal practice, he serves as a roster member of the Canadian Centre for Environmental Arbitration and Mediation.
