

TDS SUPPORTS THE MANITOBA OPEN INNOVATION CHALLENGE

published 11/10/2017

Keith LaBossiere, TDS Managing Partner says “Just like our decision to move to True North Square, when we heard about the Manitoba Open Innovation Challenge, we knew we had to be part of it, because it built on our vision of being a progressive law firm focused on client service and community spirit.” LaBossiere adds, “We are honoured to collaborate with the other sponsors in the improvement of early literacy and numeracy for all children in Manitoba. We know overcoming these challenges will leave a lasting legacy for generations to come.”

For more information refer to the news release ‘North Forge Technology Exchange Opens Call For Innovation To Improve Early Childhood Literacy and Numeracy’, which was issued by The province of Manitoba on November 9, 2017.

DISCLAIMER: This article is presented for informational purposes only. The content does not constitute legal advice or solicitation and does not create a solicitor client relationship. The views expressed are solely the authors’ and should not be attributed to any other party, including Thompson Dorfman Sweatman LLP (TDS), its affiliate companies or its clients. The authors make no guarantees regarding the accuracy or adequacy of the information contained herein or linked to via this article. The authors are not able to provide free legal advice. If you are seeking advice on specific matters, please contact Keith LaBossiere, CEO & Managing Partner at kdl@tdslaw.com, or 204.934.2587. Please be aware that any unsolicited information sent to the author(s) cannot be considered to be solicitor-client privileged.

While care is taken to ensure the accuracy for the purposes stated, before relying upon these articles, you should seek and be guided by legal advice based on your specific circumstances. We would be pleased to provide you with our assistance on any of the issues raised in these articles.