Hayley Main Returns to TDS

Thompson Dorfman Sweatman LLP (TDS) is pleased to announce that Hayley Main has returned as a litigation associate at our Winnipeg office. She will practise civil litigation, with a focus on insurance and related litigation matters.

Hayley has experience assisting clients with commercial litigation, administrative law, personal injury, and human rights matters. She began her career at TDS in 2009 as an Articling Student. She continued with the firm as an Associate before transitioning to in-house counsel, where she further developed her experience prior to returning to TDS.

"We are delighted to welcome Hayley back to TDS. She is a talented lawyer whose experience and judgment will be a strong addition to our litigation practice. Just as importantly, Hayley brings a warm and collegial approach that makes her a valued colleague and a great fit within our firm." — Keith LaBossiere, K.C., CEO & Managing Partner
