

TDS Welcomes Neil Steen Back to the Firm

published 04/06/2023

Thompson Dorfman Sweatman LLP (TDS) is pleased to welcome Neil Steen to the firm.

Neil is an associate lawyer at TDS with a practice that focuses on civil litigation.

Neil has extensive courtroom experience, having appeared and argued in all levels of Court in Manitoba, including the Court of Appeal as well as the Supreme Court of Canada. During his time as a Crown Attorney with the Department of Justice, he prosecuted all manner of offences ranging from impaired driving to murder. Over the years, Neil's practice focused primarily on appellate advocacy and prosecutions in the context of criminal organizations.

Neil spent the summers of 2007 & 2008 as a summer student with TDS. He returned in the spring of 2009 as an Articling Student-at-Law. Following his Call to the Bar in 2010, Neil practised with the Manitoba Department of Justice as a Crown Attorney until 2023. He is thrilled to return to private practice with TDS.

Anyone wishing to contact Neil can contact him by email at nsteen@tdslaw.com or by phone at (204) 934-2506.
